Description: Detail in writing your reasons for nominating this person for the Christopher Simpson Communications Achievement Award. Nominations should describe the individual's work and his/her exceptional accomplishments in the field of communications on behalf of a college or university.

The Christopher Simpson Communication Achievement Award recognizes a CCA member for exceptional accomplishment in the field of communications on behalf of a college or university. Christopher Simpson was a nationally acclaimed leader in integrated marketing, media relations, and crisis communications for institutions of higher education, associations, the government and other non-profits. He generously shared his time, talent, and expertise with the CCA and its members. He founded Simpson Consulting, the precursor to SimpsonScarborough, in 2002. His untimely death on Feb. 24, 2008, cut short an extraordinary life and career. Nominations may be made at any time by any member and submitted directly to the organization's president. The president will bring all nominations before the Board of Directors for approval. The board may approve one, two or no award be presented in any particular year.
